*Contact counselors if you have questions on a course

One science class cannot count for both areas needed (ex: BIOL 100 counts for credit in Physical OR Life science, not both). Students need 10 total science credits.

With counselors approval

Department chairs decide on courses based on course syllabus to see if it covers what is required.

Please Note: To complete English requirements at Montesano, students need to complete a writing course and literature course each year to complete their English requirement for that year.

For other courses that are added by the college, the counselors are able to talk with the department chairs at the high school to see if the specific course will meet the requirements.

5 SPSCC credits = 1 HS credit
